Intelligence Conference. Mr. Dulles designated Dr. H. Marshall Chadwell as his representative and invited members to nominate representatives to work with Dr. Chadwell to organize the conference. General Trudeau, General Samford, and Admiral Daniel indicated that their agencies wished to participate and that they would nominate members. It was agreed that the conference should be informal and result in the production of no joint or agreed papers. However, the Guided Missiles Intelligence Conference will prepare a paper for the use of the subsequent Research and Development Conference to

Request for Estimate on Warning of Surprise Attack

5. Mr. Dulles made reference to the NSC request for an estimate on the probable warning which the US would have of a Soviet attack on the U.S. in mid-1957.

It was agreed, upon the suggestion of Dr. Kent, that such an estimate be undertaken in the usual way and that [REDACTED] proceed with the preparation of terms of reference to be submitted for review at the next IAC meeting. This estimate will supplement SNIE 11-7-54, "Soviet Gross Capabilities for Attacks on the US and Key Overseas Installations through 1 July 1954", which is in process.

DCI Briefing of NSC

6. The following matters were informally brought up during the discussion of items of possible interest to the NSC:

a. Prospects for stability in SE Asia in the post-armistice period.
